PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This 21.263-acre property is in Monroe County, Ohio, and offers excellent recreational opportunities. The 576 sq. ft. off-grid cabin is ideal for a weekend getaway or as a hunting camp. Inside, the cabin features a spacious living area with a wood-burning stove and a bunk room that can accommodate up to nine people. All furnishings are included in the sale.

The back deck provides beautiful views of the dense woods on the property and serves as a perfect spot to grill meals on the BBQ. Additionally, there is a covered storage area for firewood, tools, and other equipment. A well-maintained network of trails allows for easy access throughout the entire property.

Monroe County is known for its abundant wildlife, including big bucks, and this property does not disappoint. The property features a spacious wood-framed blind overlooking a pocket field, along with two other tree stands for hunting. Furthermore, the property is adjacent to over 1,000 acres of Wayne National Forest, enhancing its appeal for outdoor enthusiasts.
