WELCOME TO THE PULASKI 9

DISCOVER THE PULASKI 9—AN INCREDIBLE PROPERTY JUST OUTSIDE BURNSIDE IN SCENIC PULASKI COUNTY, KENTUCKY. This unique 9± acre offering combines five connected parcels into one spectacular retreat overlooking the Cumberland River. Whether you're looking for a private getaway, recreational paradise, or long-term investment, this property is filled with opportunity and natural beauty.

BREATHTAKING SETTING

Perched on the cliffs above the Cumberland River, every acre of this property enjoys panoramic views of the water below. Walk to the rock face and take in dramatic vistas of the river and surrounding rock formations. The property borders the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers easement, providing added privacy and permanent protection from development along the water.

Imagine enjoying evenings by a firepit at the cliff's edge, watching the sunset reflect off the water as boats pass below—the perfect Kentucky retreat.

MORE ABOUT THE PULASKI 9

OUTDOOR ADVENTURE & RECREATION

The property is near the small city of Burnside, offering marinas, world-class fishing, boating, and lake recreation. Somerset is roughly 11 miles to the north, making restaurants, shopping, healthcare, and services just a short drive away. Mature hardwoods and several cleared, level areas are ideal for a tent, camper, or future cabin site. The wildlife is abundant, including whitetail deer, wild turkey, and even occasional bald eagle sightings. Enjoy trails throughout the area, perfect for hiking, 4-wheelers, or side-by-side exploration.

UTILITIES & ACCESS

Currently no electricity or water service is available, though several neighbors have installed solar systems and water tanks. Electric service could be extended with planning and permitting. The land is accessed via a private road, partially paved and gravel, and shared among landowners. An additional gravel road, maintained by the Corps of Engineers, provides quick and easy access along the property's upper edge.
