WELCOME TO THE SHARKEY 256.11

IF YOU'RE SEARCHING FOR A DEER AND DUCK HUNTING PROPERTY IN THE SOUTHERN PORTION OF THE MISSISSIPPI DELTA, THE SHARKEY 256.11 IS WORTH A LOOK. Situated in south Sharkey County, this 256.11± acre property offers an exceptional combination of prime hunting opportunities. Located roughly eight miles east of Onward and Highway 61, you are right in the heart of one of Mississippi's best hunting areas. Just ten miles east of the Mississippi River and two miles west of the Delta National Forest, the property is also adjacent to the Theodore Roosevelt National Wildlife Refuge, ensuring outstanding wildlife numbers year after year. Access is provided via an easement off Priddy Road.

The Sharkey 256.11 is enrolled in the Wetlands Reserve Program (WRP), with the easement dating back to 1997 and plantings established in 1998. The property is well-designed with large, established food plots and an extensive trail system throughout. Water features are a key asset, including a duck impoundment with a water control structure, as well as frontage along Coon Bayou and the False River, providing additional water sources for wildlife.
