MORE ABOUT 211 SIMOLIN LANE

The 1,536± square foot wood-sided home features three bedrooms and two full bathrooms with a spacious, open living area that flows into the dining and kitchen combination—perfect for gathering with family and friends after a day outdoors. Large windows allow you to enjoy the peaceful wooded views from the comfort of your home. A 546± square foot detached two-car garage provides plenty of room for vehicles, ATVs, tools, or outdoor equipment. The home's HVAC system was replaced in 2024, offering peace of mind and energy-efficient comfort for years to come.

The acreage is mostly wooded, making it an excellent habitat for local wildlife. Deer, turkey, and other native game are frequent visitors, giving outdoor enthusiasts endless opportunities to enjoy nature right from their own property. The mature timber and natural landscape provide exceptional privacy while still allowing room for hiking trails, food plots, or additional improvements if desired.

Whether you're looking to enjoy quiet country living, establish a recreational retreat, or invest in Arkansas land, this Polk County home is worth considering.
