MORE ABOUT THE CALHOUN 722

From a recreational standpoint, this farm is truly special. The deer and turkey history is well established, with years of proven success and a healthy population. Multiple food plots and strategically placed shooting houses provide a turnkey hunting setup ready for opening day. A dedicated dove field offers excellent early-season hunting, while the private duck hole is one of the property's most unique features. Productive duck holes in Mississippi's hill region are extremely difficult to find, and this one has produced ducks year after year in the latter part of the season. Adding even more appeal, the property's corner lies just 700± yards from the Skuna River, with frontage along the Skuna River bottom providing outstanding wildlife travel corridors and habitat diversity.

When hunting season winds down, you'll appreciate being less than 15± miles from Grenada Lake, home to some of the best crappie fishing in the country. Whether you're chasing trophy whitetails, spring gobblers, ducks, doves, or spending the day on the water, the Calhoun 722 offers year-round outdoor opportunities.
