MORE ABOUT THE YAZOO 66

The Yazoo 66 is currently utilized by Denbury Resources, whose pipeline right-of-ways double as well-maintained wildlife plots and internal roadways, keeping access across the property in top condition. A small gravel-bottom creek winds through the land, adding a natural travel corridor and water source for wildlife.

Conveniently located just 14± miles southwest of Yazoo City, 17± miles northwest of Flora, and only 32± miles from Madison, this property combines a rural, secluded setting with quick access to town amenities.

If you have been searching for a recreational timberland tract in Yazoo County, call Michael Oswalt today to schedule a private tour of the Yazoo 66 and experience #TheSmallTownWay!

Disclaimers: Additional land is available, and the final acreage will be determined by a survey.*
