MORE ABOUT THE COVINGTON 46.23

Outside, newly mulched flower beds frame a well-kept yard shaded by established pecan trees. The land includes two open pasture areas, while approximately 35± acres remain wooded with a mix of quality hardwood timber and scattered pines. A sandy-bottom, clear-water stretch of Poley Creek runs through the tract, adding both character and wildlife habitat. Deer and turkey are commonly seen throughout the acreage, making this a strong option for outdoor enthusiasts.

Utilities include Covington Electric, public water, a septic system, and high-speed internet availability. Conveniently located just 15± miles from Andalusia, 9± miles from Opp, and 94± miles from Destin, Florida, this tract is well suited for a hunting and recreational retreat, a mini-farm setup, or a comfortable rural residence with room to grow.
