WELCOME TO THE MARSHALL 1,884.4

WELCOME TO THE MARSHALL 1,884.4, A PREMIER RECREATIONAL TIMBERLAND TRACT LOCATED APPROXIMATELY SIX MILES SOUTHWEST OF HOLLY SPRINGS, MISSISSIPPI. The Marshall County property, under the same ownership since 1994, is predominantly managed pine timberland developed with wildlife in mind—no government programs, conservation easements, or carbon deals in place—just a clean slate for the next owner.

The 1,884.4± acre property features four gated entrances, one on the south side of Highway 4 and three along Wilkins Chapel Road to the north, allowing access from multiple directions and minimizing hunting pressure. The Highway 4 entrance has a long gravel drive leading to a newer two-door shop with an attached shed, metal carport, and enclosed storage room—perfect for housing buggies, tractors, and all your land maintenance equipment.

MORE ABOUT THE MARSHALL 1,884.4

Once on the land, you'll find miles of well-maintained interior roads and a high fence that runs along the entire southern boundary for added privacy. This area is known for its good deer and exceptional turkey hunting, and the Marshall 1,884.4 is no exception. The property has an impressive wildlife history, including deer scoring over 160", extremely high turkey numbers, and an annual doe harvest of around 40. There are numerous established wildlife plots with over 25 shooting houses and stands. A 12± acre dove field doubles as a giant food plot where it's common to see a dozen or more bucks during a single sit.

In addition to the incredible hunting, the property boasts multiple water features, including Pigeon Roost Creek, Sand Creek, and Jones Creek, as well as several ponds—some of which are stocked with bass and bream.
