WELCOME TO THE POLK 24

NESTLED IN THE EAST TENNESSEE MOUNTAINS, RESTING ATOP AND ON THE SIDE OF A HILL IS THE POLK 24. With panoramic views, the 24± acre property is perfect for your next dream home, short-term rental cabins, hunting, farming, or any such combination. The Polk County land is located off McAllister Road, approximately five miles northeast of Ducktown and barely seven miles east of the Ocoee Adventure Center. Multiple fields are already cut in, making foot plots or pasture land for horses easy work! A home site is staked out, and a septic tank is already put in. The forest yields about 60% pines and 40% hardwood, which is mostly made up of old oaks.

MORE ABOUT THE POLK 24

At the bottom of the ridge you'll find a beautiful, year-round stream, providing a water source or just an awesome spot to hang out and listen to the running water. Many native artifacts have been found on the property—it holds tons of history.

The Polk 24 is convenient to Georgia, North Carolina, the mountains, many lakes, casinos, and outdoor recreation, specifically white-water rafting!
