WELCOME TO THE DOOLY 37.8

WELCOME TO THE DOOLY 37.8, LOCATED ON ELKO ROAD IN UNADILLA, GEORGIA. These 37.8± acres of prime hunting land have 1,800± feet of frontage on Camp Creek, a large free-flowing creek plenty wide enough for a Jon boat. This Dooly County property has endless possibilities for recreational use, including a 680± foot long by 340± foot wide dove field recently planted in sunflowers and a large hardwood bottom to hunt whitetail deer, turkeys, and wild boars.

Mostly wetland with numerous high spots throughout, walking the Dooly 37.8 is like stepping back in time. Remnants of pine stumps remain from a time when turpentine harvesting was in its prime. There are numerous pieces of chert and flint rock to be found in the dove field after a good rain, which will interest collectors of Native American history, as this area was once inhabited by the Creek Indians.

The Dooly 37.8 also has access to all of the City of Unadilla utilities. Unadilla is a small, quiet southern town that revolves around agriculture, so wildlife has plenty to eat surrounding this property and uses the coverage as a bedding area.
