WELCOME TO THE MADISON 26.1

WELCOME TO THE MADISON 26.1 IN PICKENS, MISSISSIPPI! This 26.1± acre property is located in Madison County, approximately 3 miles east of the Big Black River, 6± miles southeast of Pickens, and 32± miles northeast of Madison. A deeded easement leads to the gated property, giving it a secluded feel from the moment you arrive.

The Madison 26.1 features a 28-foot off-grid camper with room to sleep up to five and a solar connection in place. It offers a place to spend an extended weekend and get out of the elements between hunts. The property make-up consists of approximately 18-year-old natural regeneration and provides excellent wildlife habitat. Internal trails make much of the gently rolling property accessible by UTV or truck and provide access to areas that can be expanded for additional trails or food plots.

MORE ABOUT THE MADISON 26.1

An elevated 8' x 8' x 8' foot shooting house overlooks three planted food plots and two additional shooting lanes. Designed for comfortable, long sits, it includes a fold-out bed, solar hookup, windows with a 360-degree view, and an access ramp. Being close to the Big Black River, the Madison 26.1 is in an area known for trophy whitetail deer and good turkey numbers.

With a camper, established hunting setup, planted food plots, and room to make the property your own, the Madison 26.1 is ready for your next hunting season.
