MORE ABOUT THE MARSHALL 80

For the avid outdoorsman, the Marshall 80 offers deer, turkey, and small game hunting along with fishing in the centrally located 1± acre pond. While visiting the property, deer and turkey signs were noted throughout. Opossum Creek runs through a portion of the property and serves as a travel corridor for the trophy deer that call this area home. The southern and central portions of this tract are inhabited mainly by pines, while the northern portion has intermixed hardwoods. The gently rolling terrain makes this easily accessible and family friendly for any recreational activities.

Whether you're looking to build your forever home or a weekend getaway close to town, this gem checks all the boxes. The peaceful and private setting, along with its recreational upside, makes the Marshall 80 worth considering!
