Here are 15.24± acres of open, gently rolling ground framed by mature hardwood timber on Bloomington's desirable southwest side — just minutes from downtown, Indiana University, and everyday conveniences, yet with the feel of true country ground. The acreage lays out beautifully as a private recreational retreat: open meadow interior for food plots, trails, or simply room to roam, with wooded perimeter cover that attracts and holds wildlife. The Clear Creek Trail borders the property, offering walk-out access to one of the area's premier multi-use trail corridors connecting toward Bloomington and the Rail Trail system. Access is direct off S Rockport Road with electricity available at the road. Whether you're seeking a close-to-town recreational escape, a long-term land hold in a growing corridor, or simply a rare piece of acreage where you can hunt, hike, and unwind minutes from campus, this property checks boxes that almost never come together in Monroe County. Two parcels sell together: 13.96± acres and 1.28± acres. Land is unplatted and sold as vacant ground — buyer to verify zoning and intended use with Monroe County.
