PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Hillsdale 36 - Recreational & Tillable Land Opportunity Hillsdale, Indiana | Vermillion County

Presented by Mossy Oak Properties Indiana Land & Lifestyle

Located near the small community of Hillsdale in western Indiana, Hillsdale 36 offers an excellent mix of recreational ground, tillable acreage, and future building potential. This versatile property features approximately 36.77 total acres, including 19.65 acres of wooded ground and 17.12 acres of productive tillable acreage. Whether you are looking for a hunting property, weekend getaway, future homesite, or investment tract, this property offers multiple opportunities.

The wooded acreage provides excellent habitat for wildlife with abundant deer sign found throughout the property during the initial inspection. Several turkeys were also observed while touring the property, showing strong recreational and hunting potential. The layout of the timber and agricultural acreage creates natural travel corridors and feeding areas that attract wildlife year-round. The property also features some nice mature timber, adding both visual appeal and potential long-term value to the property.

A nice creek crisscrosses along the south boundary of the property, providing an additional water source for wildlife while also adding to the natural beauty and recreational appeal of the farm. Combined with the timber, tillable acreage, pond, and rolling terrain, the creek helps create a very attractive setting for outdoor enthusiasts and hunters alike.

A small pond is located near the south-central portion of the property. With some cleanup and improvements, this pond could become a very attractive feature for both wildlife and recreation. The combination of water, cover, and food sources creates an excellent setup for outdoor enthusiasts.

The tillable acreage offers additional value through possible farm income, food plot opportunities, or future development possibilities. Utilities are nearby with power located on the adjoining property and city water available along County Road South 360 East.
