PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

15 acres in Switzerland County, Indiana, offering the perfect setup for your next deer hunting property. This secluded tract sits 1,100 feet off the road, giving you peace and privacy. As the last block of woods before open crop fields, it naturally funnels deer movement, making it a great hunting spot. The property is thick, providing ideal bedding cover and features two small openings perfect for developing food plots with some work. A small waterhole pond gives wildlife a reliable water source and creates another key travel area for deer on their way to feed. To top it off, a 27 ft camper is included, giving you a place to stay during hunting trips or enjoy with the family for camping weekends. Whether you're after a dedicated hunting property, a recreational retreat, or just a quiet getaway, this tract has great potential and checks all the boxes for outdoorsmen.
