Beautiful Rural Building Site In Hendricks County Clayton, IN / Hendricks County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Welcome to this 5.52 acre building site located in a supreme location just west of Clayton in the heart of Hendricks County. With hundreds of feet of road frontage on the Amo-Clayton Road, and located in the heart of the award-winning Mill Creek School community, this tract offers great potential for the family seeking to build a new home in a beautiful, quiet, and safe rural setting within minutes of Plainfield and Danville. The tract is rectangular in shape and offers a gradual, gentle sloping terrain from west to east, providing a very nice building site within the trees on the west end of the parcel. This proposed building site will also benefit from the natural flow of any surface water east, away from the house. The overgrowth within the trees is very light in nature and should allow for easy and convenient removal within the areas desired. The 5.52 acre tract also possesses a nice mixture of mature shade trees that should enhance the appeal of the building site. And with over 5 acres available, the homeowner should be able to build a network of ATV trails within the parcel for daily walking or riding. New home construction will require Minor Plat approval from County. This tract provides the opportunity to build a beautiful home in a highly sought-after area of Hendricks County, offering a very enjoyable combination of quiet, rural living with quick, convenient access to shopping and entertainment.
