PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity to own 80 acres of premier wildlife habitat in Walworth County, South Dakota, an area known for its exceptional hunting and fishing opportunities. This property is a dream come true for the dedicated outdoorsman, offering solitude, unmatched wildlife access, and the potential for long-term investment.

Bordering 160 acres of public hunting ground, this property provides direct access to 240 acres of uninterrupted outdoor opportunity. The land itself is primarily low ground, featuring dense natural cover that serves as prime habitat for pheasants and trophy whitetail deer. With minimal human disturbance and virtually no outside hunting pressure, this tract consistently produces quality hunting season after season. On wet years, waterfowl hunters will appreciate the seasonal wetlands that attract ducks and geese, adding even more versatility to your hunting experience.

What truly sets this property apart is its proximity to the mighty Missouri River, just minutes away, where some of the best walleye fishing in the country can be found. Hunt upland birds and deer in the morning, then fish trophy-class walleye by afternoon. It's a complete outdoor lifestyle that few properties can offer.

Additionally, the land holds promising potential as an investment through future partnerships with state wildlife and habitat improvement projects. Whether you're a recreational user looking for a personal getaway or an investor seeking a property with appreciation potential, this tract is uniquely positioned to deliver.

Secluded, scenic, and rich in opportunity, this 80-acre parcel is more than just land—it's a gateway to the South Dakota experience.
