Bankhead National Forest Homesites Double Springs, AL / Winston County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

79± Acre Property Bordering Bankhead National Forest, Double Springs, AL

Discover this expansive 79-acre parcel located in Double Springs, Alabama, offering direct access to the majestic Bankhead National Forest. This property is a sanctuary for those passionate about the outdoors and provides ample recreational activities and potential residential opportunities as well.

Now Available as a Whole or Divided

The 79± total acres can be purchased as a single tract or divided into two separate parcels:

- 49± acres north of County Road 2
- 30± acres south of County Road 2

Both tracts adjoin Bankhead National Forest and share the same outstanding features and recreational potential as the full property.

Features Include:

- Immediate Forest Access: The property adjoins Bankhead National Forest, allowing easy access to extensive hiking trails, hunting areas, and nature exploration.
- Rich Timberland: Boasting a mix of mature hardwoods in the valleys, mature pine on the ridges, and some recently cleared areas, providing ecological diversity and potential timber resources.
- Natural Water Features: A tranquil stream enhances the property's appeal, adding to its picturesque quality and wildlife habitat.
- Development Ready: With paved road frontage and utilities available, the property is well-prepared to build a dream home or establish a rural retreat.
- Proximity to Lewis Smith Lake: Located just a short drive from Lewis Smith Lake and its tributaries, it is ideal for fishing, boating, and water sports enthusiasts.

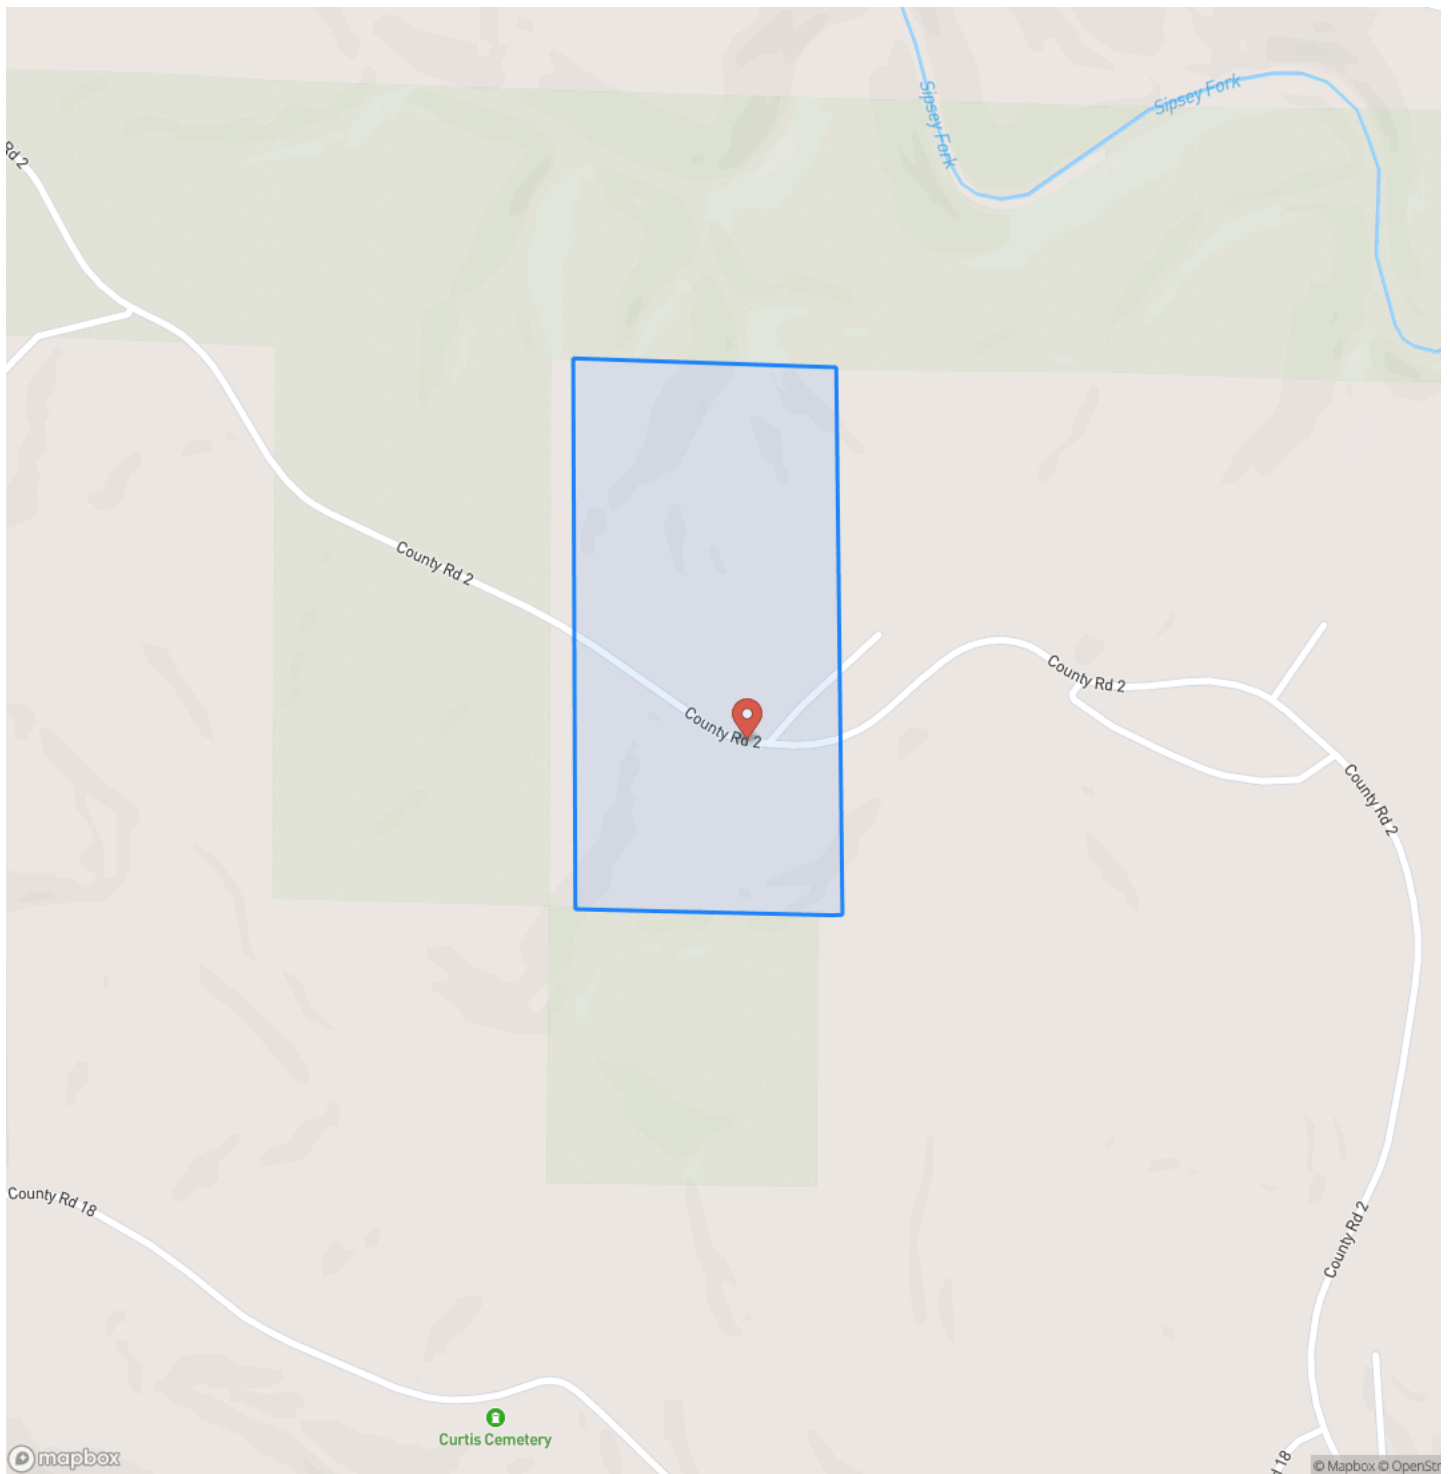

Ideal for those looking to escape to a private haven or develop a unique homesite, this 79-acre property (or either of its divided tracts) combines natural beauty, strategic location, and practical accessibility, making it a rare find in Alabama's landscape.
