19.84 +/- Acres of Residential Agriculture & Timberland For Sale in Bladen County, NC! This property is located off of NC 131 Hwy, outside of Bladenboro, NC.

This property has approximately 14.5 acres of Tillable Farmland, which is currently being tended by a local farming operation. Approximately 5 Acres of a Natural Regrowth of Timber, consisting of pines with some mixed hardwoods. Per LandID Soil Maps the soils are: 78.63% of Rains Fine Sandy Loam (RaA), 11.47% Norfolk Loamy Sand (NoA) and 9.9% Goldsboro Sandy Loam. These soil types not only have led to successful crop production and harvest but also to the potential of favorable soils for a septic system. A soil analysis has been completed on the property and is suitable for a Conventional Septic System. Survey Pending to Confirm Exact Acreage.

With the Mix of Timber and Farmland It would also be a place that should hold plenty of Wildlife. Game trails and tracks were evident along the farm fields, and timber. Bow Hunters can hang sets back in the timber or easily bring out your ladder stand or tower blind and your set for some rifle hunting sets across the vast farmland. Bring your ATV's and SXS's and have a complete blast cruising along the fields and timber. There is also a small .21ac Farm Pond on the property that has a mix of Freshwater Gamefish in it.

The Farmland and Timberland will add an income producing factor to this property through the leasing of Farmland, Harvesting of Timber, and/or Hunting Lease.

This property is Unrestricted. This property is NOT located in a FEMA Floodplain or a Wetland Designation.

This property is a blank canvas ready for the proud new owners to make it their own.
