GUEST ACCOMMODATIONS

The property is designed to support both overnight lodging and longer stay hospitality use.

MAIN LODGE

The main lodge serves as the central hospitality building and includes guest accommodations, common areas, kitchen functions and gathering space.

GUEST HOUSE

The separate guest house includes:

- 4 bedrooms
- 1 bathroom

ADDITIONAL CABIN

A separate cabin provides another lodging option and adds flexibility for private guest use, staff housing, or expanded rental capacity.

GUEST CAPACITY

The overall operation is represented as accommodating up to approximately 17 guests.

CAMPGROUND & OUTDOOR USE

The campground component broadens the business beyond traditional lodging and gives the property added appeal for highway travelers, outdoor enthusiasts, hunters, fishermen, adventure groups, and seasonal visitors.

The site layout supports a mix of structured lodging and more rustic Alaska stays, allowing a future owner to serve several different guest types from one property.

COMMERCIAL KITCHEN

The commercial kitchen supports guest meals, group dining, breakfast service, tour packages, retreats, and other hospitality uses.

This feature gives a buyer additional flexibility to operate beyond room rentals alone and can support a more complete guest experience.

HELIPAD & ACCESS

The on site helipad is one of the property's most distinctive features and can support private aviation, charter activity, remote tourism, outdoor recreation logistics, and other specialized uses.

Road access is provided from the Alaska Highway through maintained, paved and dedicated access.

UTILITIES & SUPPORT INFRASTRUCTURE

The property includes substantial infrastructure for continued operation:

- Two private wells
- Crib sewer system
- Electric service
- Wood stove heating
- Toyo heating
- Oil and propane systems
- On demand oil drip hot water heater
- Shower house
- Laundry facilities
- Storage sheds
- Smokehouse
- Garden area
- Office trailer

This infrastructure allows the property to function as both a hospitality business and a full time owner occupied residence.

ALASKA SETTING

Cathedral Creeks Lodge is surrounded by the scenery people travel to Alaska to experience.

The property offers:

- Alaska Range views
- River views
- Northern Lights
- Wildlife
- Open wilderness scenery
- Peace and privacy

The closest neighboring residence is reported by the seller to be approximately 6 miles away, reinforcing the sense of seclusion.

BUSINESS & LIFESTYLE OPPORTUNITY

This property may appeal to:

- Bed and breakfast operators
- Lodge owners
- Campground operators
- Outdoor recreation businesses
- Hunting and fishing outfitters
- Tourism investors
- Retreat operators
- Family enterprises
- Lower 48 buyers seeking an Alaska lifestyle business
- Owner operators wanting to live and work on site

The combination of guest lodging, campground space, a commercial kitchen, a helipad, highway frontage, and support infrastructure creates a strong foundation for continued hospitality use or future repositioning.
