PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

35-acre Rolling Hills Land Listing

Tucked away in a peaceful, private setting, this exceptional 35-acre tract of rolling hills offers a rare opportunity to own a property that seamlessly blends recreation, privacy, and future homesite potential. Heavily wooded and rich with natural beauty, the land features multiple elevated homesites to choose from—each offering its own unique vantage point surrounded by mature trees and serene views. Whether you envision a secluded custom-built home, a weekend hunting retreat, or the perfect combination of both, this property is ready to bring that vision to life.

Access has been thoughtfully considered, with cleared entry points on two sides of the property, allowing buyers the flexibility to choose the approach that best fits their plans. Several areas have already been cleared for easy access throughout the tract, giving you the option to establish a traditional driveway to a homesite or maintain ATV paths for recreational or hunting use. Multiple trails weave through the wooded acreage, making it easy to explore, hunt, or simply enjoy long walks immersed in nature.

This land is ideal for hunters, with abundant wildlife and ample wooded cover that creates a natural habitat for game. The size and layout allow you to hunt your own property comfortably while still preserving privacy and tranquility. For those dreaming of a future home, the rolling hills provide beautiful building locations that are set far off the road—so much so that you won't be able to see the roadway once you're on the property. Here, you can enjoy true peace and quiet, surrounded by trees, with nothing but the sounds of nature.

What truly sets this property apart is its versatility. It is equally suited for recreational use, a private rural estate, or a combination of both. Build your dream home tucked among the hills, keep plenty of wooded acreage intact for hunting or recreation, and enjoy the rare luxury of having it all in one place. This is more than just land—it's an opportunity to create a lifestyle defined by freedom, privacy, and a deep connection to the outdoors.
