Watkins Pond Road Tract

Waynesboro, GA / Burke County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Welcome to the Watkins Pond Road Tract, a 203-acre, stunning recreational property designed for the serious outdoorsman. Located in the heart of Northern Burke County, this tract offers the perfect blend of managed timber, diverse topography, and exceptional hunting.

The Land & Timber

This tract offers a balanced ecosystem, providing both immediate recreational enjoyment and long-term timber value:

- Pines: Approximately 100 acres of thriving 11-year-old pine plantation.
- Mature Hardwoods: roughly 103 acres of pristine hardwoods, providing a deep canopy and essential mast for wildlife.
- Water & Topography: the land features rolling hills and bottomlands in the hardwoods, and multiple drainages that converge on the west side of the tract, connecting into Round Tree Branch. This varied terrain creates natural travel corridors and beautiful bottomland views.

A Sportsman's Paradise

If you are looking to create a turnkey hunting operation, the foundation is already laid out.

- A proven hunting tract for whitetail deer, turkey, and small game.
- Multiple food plots are already in place, complemented by a quality interior road system that provides easy access.
- Whether you're looking to hunt, hike, ride ATVs, or simply retreat into nature, this tract can accommodate every outdoor passion.

Accessibility & Location

- Road Frontage: Extensive access with approximately 3,560 feet of frontage on Watkins Pond Road.
- Location: Ideally situated in Northern Burke County for privacy without isolation.
- Excellent topography on the south half of the property for a future homesite or hunting cabin.
- 10 minutes from Waynesboro, 30 minutes from Augusta, and 1 hour from Statesboro.
