324 Acres in Leipers Creek Valley

Williamsport, TN / Maury County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This property sits in one of the prettiest valleys in Middle Tennessee. It's a place for families and sportsmen, featuring 324 acres of productive farming and hunting ground on the rich terraces and wooded hollows of the Leipers Creek valley, just 20 minutes from Columbia, one hour from downtown Nashville and bordering over 1 mile of the Natchez Trace Parkway. The most exciting qualities of this property can be found on the 9 acre fishing lake. The lake was built 30 years ago with angling in mind. It's been strictly managed for big largemouth bass with a healthy population of big bluegill, shell cracker and crappie. The lake features a large fishing dock, a boat launch and very accessible shoreline for fishing from the bank. The lake bed is full of natural and hand placed structure, making this a fun and technical small body of water to fish for even the most dedicated anglers. Overlooking the lake is a log getaway cabin in the middle of beautiful, open land. Near the cabin is metal shop building for storing equipment, tractors, side by sides and boats. The cabin, lake and most of the property itself isn't visible from Leipers Creek Road, making this a very private farm with similar neighboring properties. The landscape of this property combines for around 95 acres of open ground, most of which surrounds the gentle terrain around the cabin and lake, with roughly 50 acres currently leased for row crop production. The balance of the property lays in ridges and hollows, mostly dominated by mixed timber with a collection of old pastures. This is an impressive sportsman retreat, and it could be the right place to build a permanent homeplace in the beautiful and historic landscape of Leipers Creek valley.
