Missouri Valley Hunting Farm Mondamin, IA / Harrison County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This 20+/- acre Missouri River Valley hunting farm in Harrison County, Iowa offers a great opportunity for waterfowl and upland game hunters looking for a small but highly productive property! A line of mature cottonwood and shrubby trees along the road provides excellent screening and natural cover as you enter into the property. Beyond the cottonwoods lies a reedy slough that creates a perfect duck hunting hole, offering prime habitat for waterfowl throughout the migration. The western boundary of the property is defined by a creek that winds through the land and separates it from the neighboring CRP field, creating excellent habitat for wildlife. Along the creek you'll find additional mature cottonwood and willow trees, forming a small wooded corridor that shows signs of deer activity, including scrapes and rubs. The diverse habitat of timber, water, and native grasses makes this property a natural draw for whitetails, upland birds, and migrating waterfowl. Situated in the highly desirable Missouri River Valley flyway, this farm offers consistent opportunities for migratory game. Conveniently located less than 3+/- miles from Mondamin, Iowa, and 12+/- miles from Blair, Nebraska, the property is within easy reach of the Omaha metro area while still offering privacy and hunting potential! All showings are by appointment only. If you would like more information or would like to schedule a private viewing please contact Hunter Soma at (712) 267- 4860.
