PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This 50.74+- acre property is a mix of pine and hardwood trees. Lefever Road, also known as The Frenchman's Road, is now a dead-end road. Years ago, Lefever Road continued north and connected to Old Jackson Chapel Road near where the Pinhoti Trail now crosses it. When I drive down Lefever Road, I feel like I'm entering a cove in an 1800's farming community. The area is so quiet, I only hear the birds singing. There is a spring-fed pond in the middle of the acreage. I understand there are several springs on the acreage. While walking the property, I noticed several ridges with nice views of the valley.

The seller is selling 50.74 acres from a larger parcel. A boundary survey will be required to transfer the property to the new owner. The property lines are well-flagged and marked for an acreage showing. Utilities include water, power, and internet.
