At the heart of the property is a well-established former skydiving business facility featuring two impressive aviation hangars. One hangar offers approximately 6,500 square feet complete with office space and commercial restrooms, while the second spans 4,800 square feet with soaring 16-foot ceilings, providing ample room for aircraft storage, equipment, workshops, or conversion for a variety of uses. Aviation enthusiasts will appreciate the 2,300-foot grass runway for small planes, along with a paved helipad—making arrivals and departures seamless.

Beyond the aviation amenities, the property is perfectly suited for recreation and country living. Two scenic lakes provide ideal settings for fishing and peaceful relaxation, with hunting also permitted on the grounds. Two cozy, fully equipped cabins offer warm and inviting accommodations for guests, family, or rental income opportunities. Each cabin features one bedroom, one bath, and an open kitchen/living area, creating comfortable private retreats in the midst of this stunning landscape.
