PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

4,000 feet of trails - 3 acre beaver pond - 4,300 feet of creek frontage!

Discover this beautiful and diverse 145-acre tract conveniently located just off the I-95 corridor in Greensville County, Virginia. Offering an incredible blend of recreation, investment, and residential potential, this expansive property features an established and extensive internal road system consisting of over 4,000 feet of clear trails. These paths are great for ATVs, dirt bikes, horseback riding, and easy navigation during hunting season. A power line cuts through the parcel and is currently being utilized as a food plot for whitetail deer hunting.

Water features abound on this parcel. Cattail Creek serves as the northern property line, providing over 4,300 feet of creek frontage. Beavers have been at work on a portion of the creek, forming a pond that offers the opportunity for waterfowl hunting. The existing timber has been sold and is scheduled to be harvested by November of 2026. This upcoming clear-cut presents an opportunity for a clean slate to design a custom layout, plant new timber, or clear even more trails and wildlife food plots.

Access is exceptional with approximately 2,300 feet of direct road frontage along Route 629. Positioned perfectly for commuters, the property is just 15 minutes from Emporia, 75 minutes from Richmond, and 90 minutes from both Norfolk and Raleigh. The I-95 corridor between Richmond and Raleigh is considered to be an undervalued part of the path of progress in the Mid-Atlantic region. This property has excellent investment potential as it is located centrally between these two rapidly expanding urban areas.

Spectrum high speed internet availability along with excellent cell phone service throughout the property provides the ability to stay connected to work and school, while maintaining a rural setting. Soil maps indicate areas of well-draining soils across this large parcel, making it ready for you to design and build your ultimate dream home or weekend retreat.

Greensville County, Virginia, was formed in 1781 from Brunswick County. Named after Revolutionary War General Nathanael Greene, the county grew as an agricultural hub focused on tobacco and cotton. Its county seat, Emporia, developed around vital railroad junctions, cementing the area's lasting role as a critical regional transportation corridor.
