PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Easter Canyon Ranch Fifty-Three spans 53 acres of prime farm and agricultural land, featuring a mix of open prairie and productive pasture ideally suited for a variety of ag operations. Located just outside the DFW metroplex, it offers the perfect balance of rural functionality and convenient access to city amenities. Whether for hay production, row crops, or expanding a working farm, this well-positioned property provides both opportunity and potential in a highly desirable area.

Location:

Easter Canyon Ranch is nestled in Grandview, Texas, within Johnson County—just 15 minutes from the historic Cleburne Square, home to charming antique shops, cozy coffee houses, local cafes, an acclaimed community theatre, and the iconic 1912 granite courthouse. Though privately set, the ranch enjoys exceptional accessibility: only 60 minutes from Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport, 40 minutes from downtown Fort Worth, and The Shops at Clearfork. The property also lies within the highly rated Grandview Independent School District, offering both tranquility and convenience.

Land:

This 53-acre property is dedicated to farming and agricultural use, featuring open, fertile land ideal for a variety of agricultural operations. The gently rolling terrain provides excellent drainage and usability, making it suitable for row crops, hay production, or pastureland. The property is fully fenced and cross-fenced with high-quality gates, supporting efficient land management and rotational use. With a current agricultural tax exemption in place, it offers significant savings and long-term value for farmers, ranchers, or anyone seeking productive acreage in a quiet, rural setting.

Wildlife:

The ranch hosts an abundance of wildlife, including songbirds, white-tailed deer, dove, turkey, waterfowl, coyotes and the occasional bobcat.
