PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Beautiful 1.39-Acre Building Lot in Axton, VA – Survey & Perk Test on File

Looking for a great piece of land to build your next home? This 1.39-acre parcel in Axton, Virginia, located in Pittsylvania County, offers an excellent opportunity to own a manageable tract of land with building potential and convenient road frontage.

The property features road frontage along Medical Center Road and has a desirable layout with land that lays great, making it a particularly attractive option for someone looking for a homesite. A fresh survey is on file, providing buyers with current information regarding the property boundaries. Even better, a successful perk test is on file, giving prospective buyers an important head start when considering future building plans.

With approximately 1.39 acres, there is enough room to create a comfortable homesite while maintaining the privacy and open space that comes with owning acreage. The property offers the flexibility to bring your own vision to life, whether you're looking to build a primary residence, a quiet country retreat, or simply invest in land with future potential.

Located in the Axton area of Pittsylvania County, this property combines a peaceful rural setting with the convenience of established road access. The combination of good topography, road frontage, a recent survey, and a successful perk test makes this parcel one to put on your list.
