Tall Trees of Talihina Talihina, OK / Le Flore County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

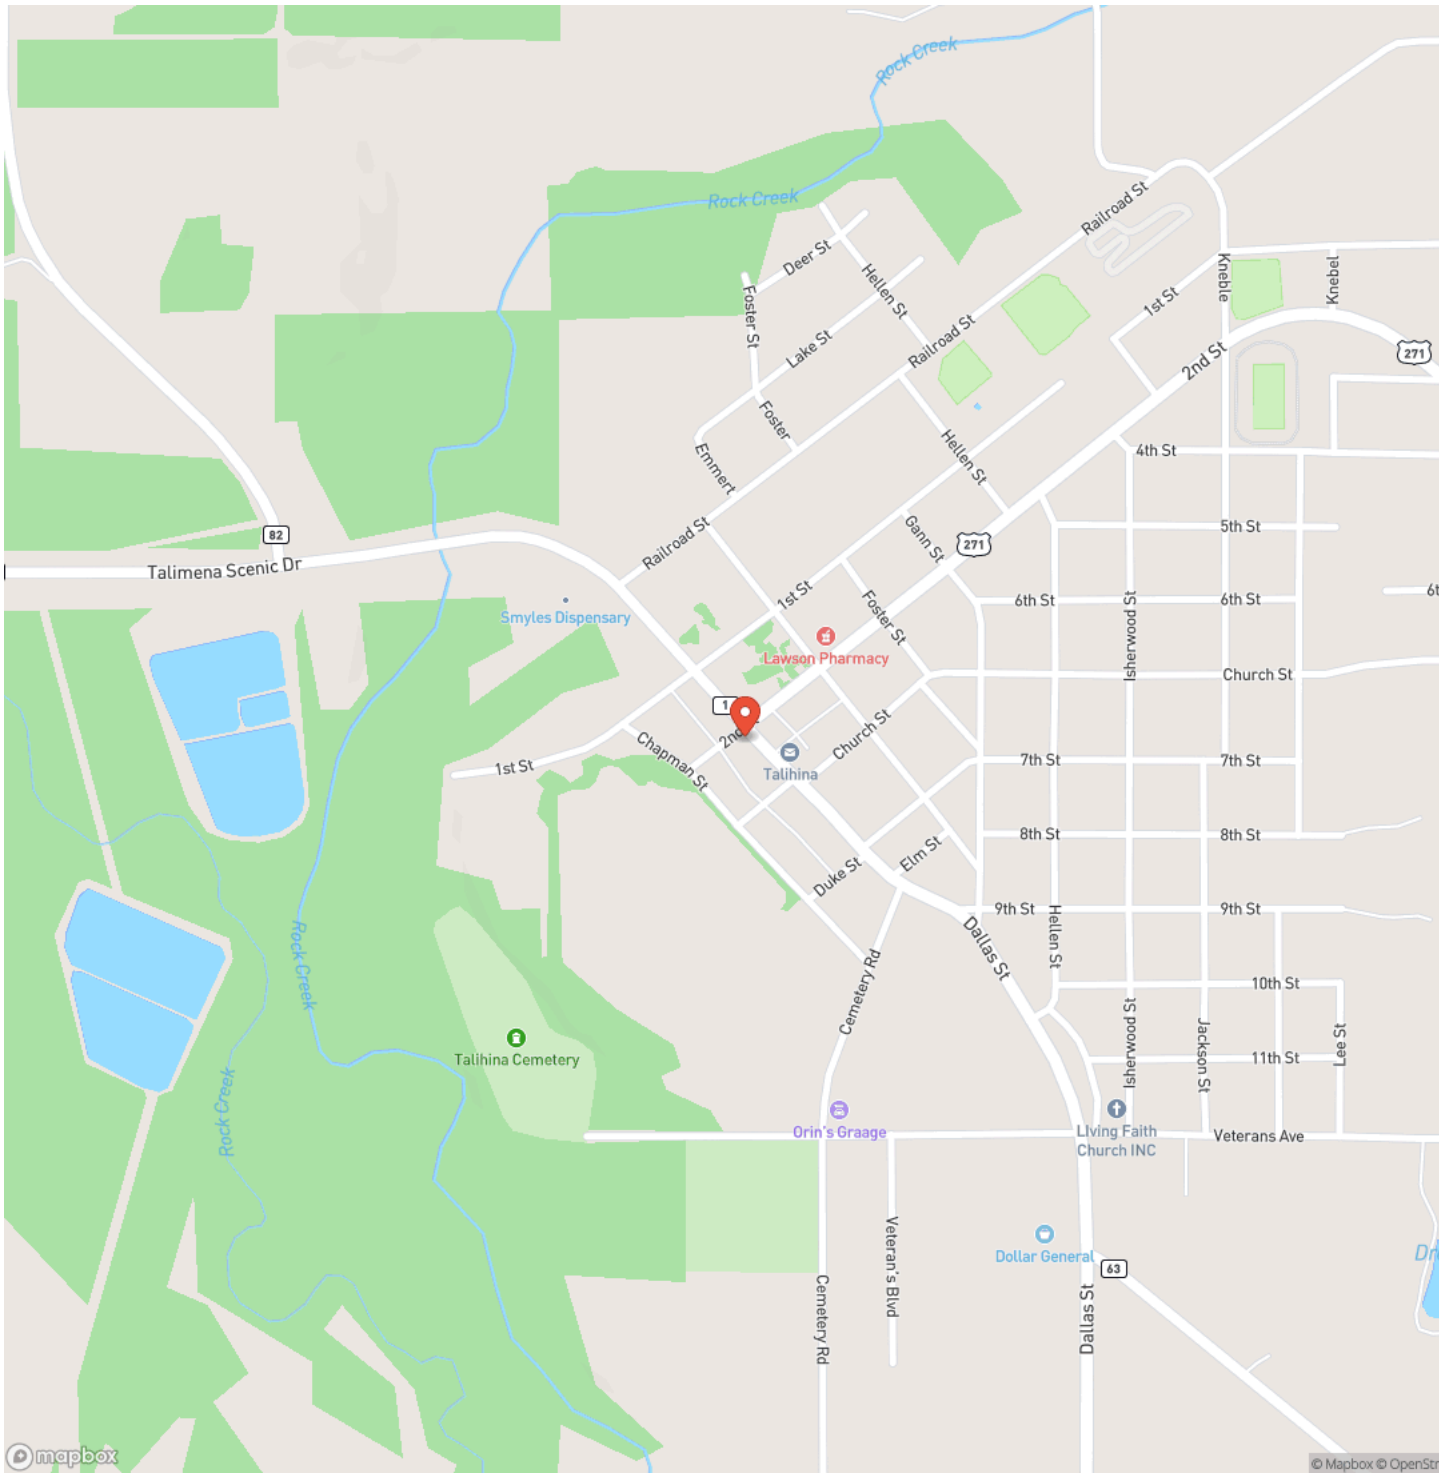

Whitetail, Turkeys, and Bears... Oh My! Escape to your own 40-acre mountain paradise atop one of the most breathtaking peaks in southeastern Oklahoma. This stunning ridge-top property is a perfect blend of towering pines and mature hardwoods, creating a private sanctuary bursting with wildlife at every turn. Whitetail deer, turkeys, black bears, and countless other species call this mountain home—you'll feel like you're living in your own episode of nature's finest show. Perched high above the surrounding valleys, the mountain-top building sites deliver jaw-dropping, panoramic views that stretch for miles. Come fall, the hardwood ridges explode in a sea of crimson, amber, and gold—some of the most spectacular fall colors you'll find anywhere in the state. Whether you're sipping coffee at sunrise or watching the sunset paint the Ouachita Mountains, the scenery here is nothing short of world-class. Tucked away for total seclusion yet only minutes from the heart of Hochatown and Broken Bow Lake, you get the best of both worlds: true off-grid serenity with easy access to dining, brewing, and all the fun of Oklahoma's premier cabin country. If you've been searching for raw, untouched beauty and some of the most beautiful scenery Oklahoma has to offer, this 40-acre mountain retreat is calling your name. Properties like this don't come around often—come see it before it's gone!
