Rocky Creek Ranch
Rocksprings, TX / Edwards County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Overview:

Rocky Creek Ranch offers 192.52 acres of raw Hill Country land for sale in Edwards County, Texas. This property captures the essence of rugged Texas terrain with a mix of rolling hills, panoramic views, and abundant native habitat. It's the ideal setup for those looking to create a private hunting retreat, weekend getaway, or long-term recreational investment. With strong wildlife presence and terrain diversity, this ranch gives buyers a rare opportunity to own true Texas hunting land.

Location:

The ranch sits in a quiet area of Edwards County, 42 miles from Carta Valley, 48 miles from Rocksprings, 74 miles to Kickapoo Cavern State Park, and 87 miles to Uvalde. The property is accessed via a private road off RM 2523, providing both seclusion and accessibility from major Hill Country hubs. This central location makes it easy to enjoy nearby parks, small-town amenities, and outdoor attractions across West and Southwest Texas.

Land:

The land ranges from roughly 1,980 to 2,200 feet in elevation, offering dramatic Hill Country views and natural cover throughout. The property is partially fenced on the west and north boundaries, with a quality road running along the perimeter. Trails already exist across the property, and new ones could easily be expanded to access the interior terrain. Native vegetation includes live oak, shin oak, pion pine, juniper, agarita, persimmon, mesquite, and mountain laurel, creating ideal habitat for both wildlife and ranching uses. Moreover, there is 1,680ft of wet-weather creek on the property. This raw acreage serves as a blank canvas ready to be shaped into a personalized hunting camp or off-grid ranch headquarters.

Wildlife & Hunting:

This ranch lies in one of Edwards County's most consistent hunting regions. The area supports a strong population of Axis and Whitetail deer, along with dove, turkey, and hogs. The mix of brush and open clearings provides natural travel corridors and feeding zones. Two feeders convey with the property, offering a head start for any new owner ready to set up blinds and hunting stations.

Utilities:

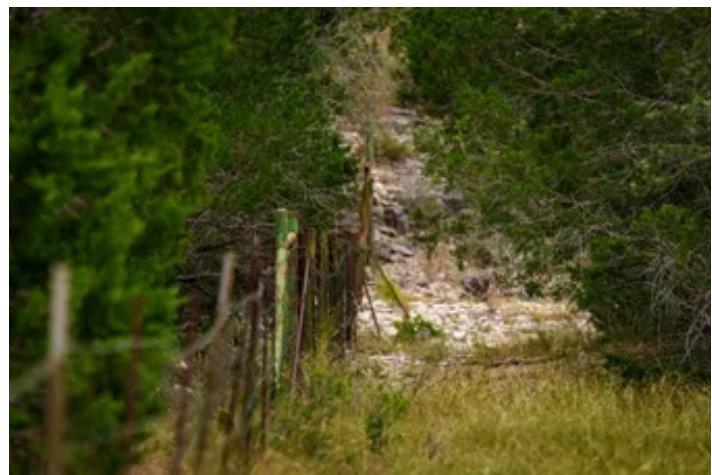

A shared water well services the property, ensuring a reliable water source for a hunting camp or wildlife needs. Electricity is available nearby and could be extended for future improvements.

Remarks:

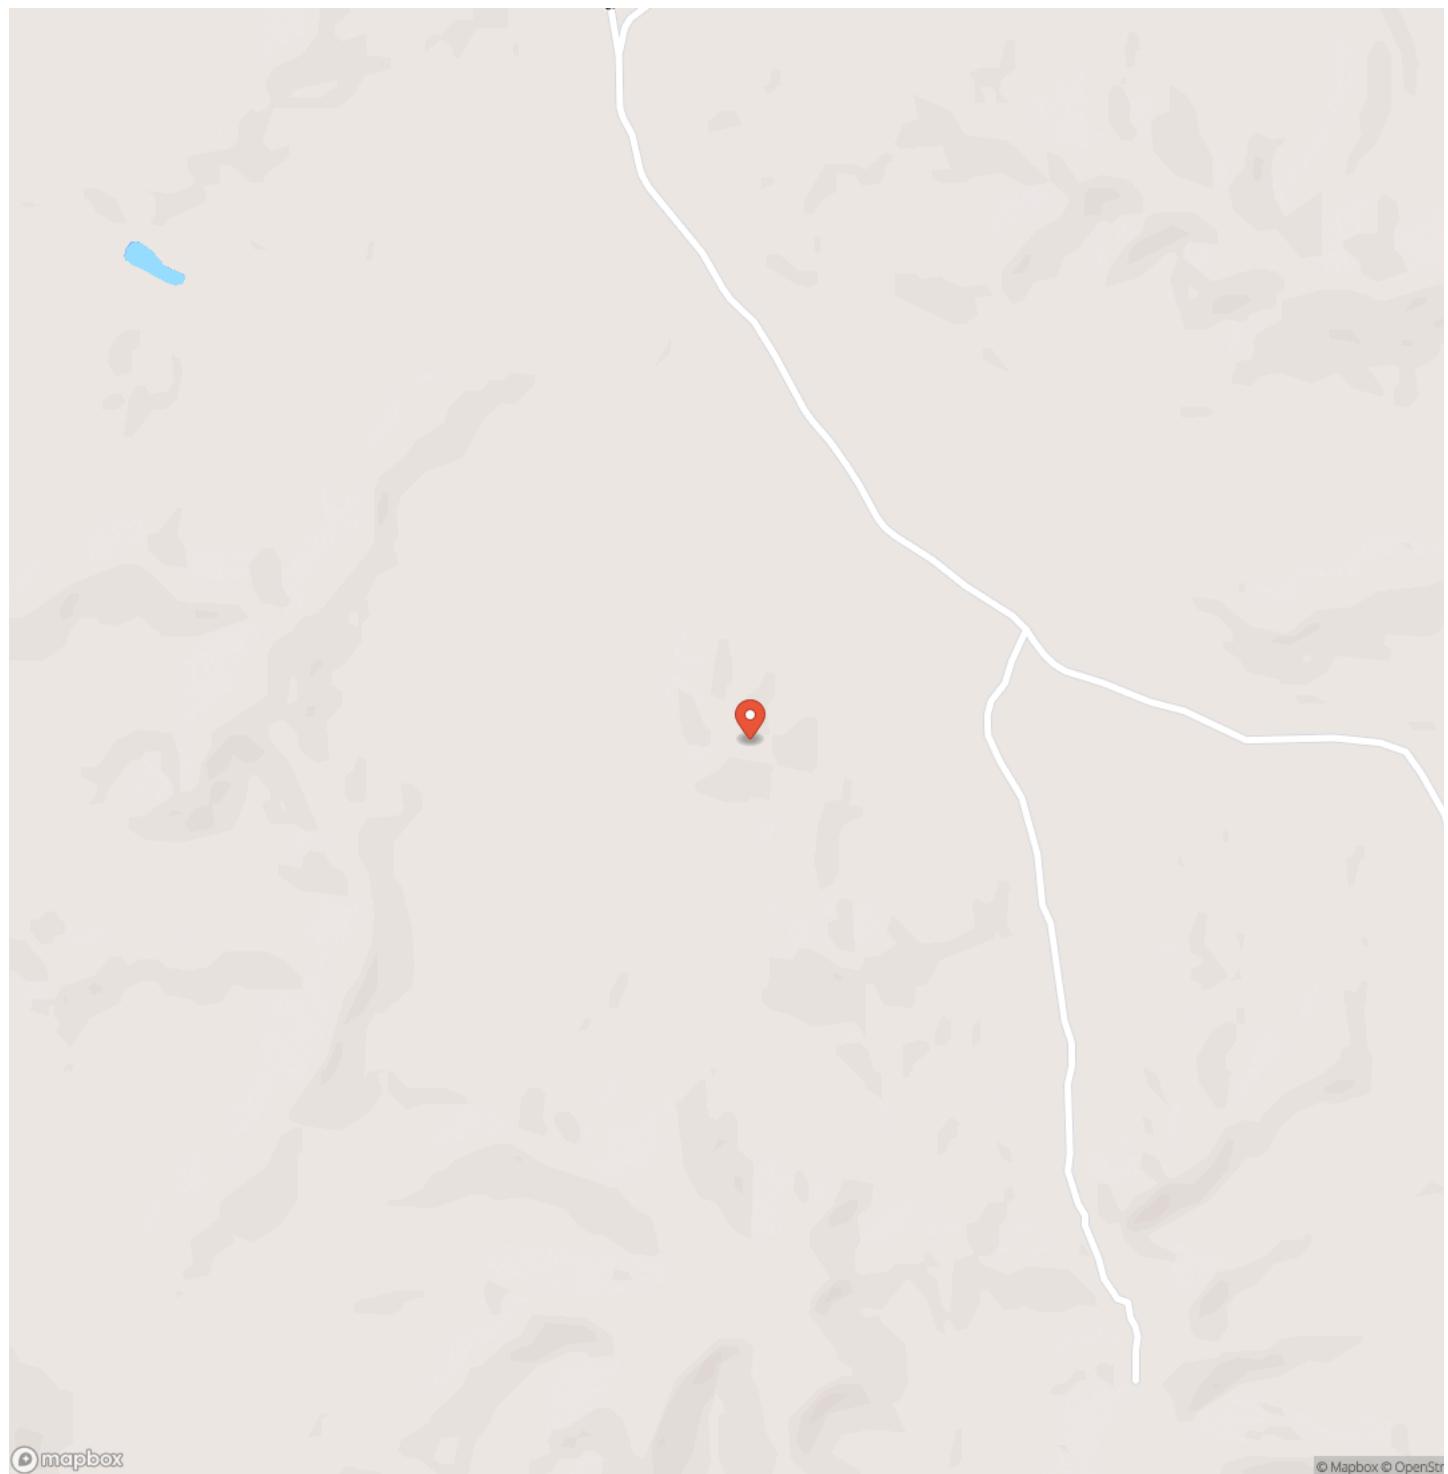

Rocky Creek Ranch currently benefits from a wildlife valuation, keeping property taxes low. This property offers a unique chance to own large-acreage recreational land in the Texas Hill Country with beautiful views, privacy, and strong game populations. Whether you're looking for a hunting property, weekend getaway, or long-term land investment, this ranch delivers the space and setting to make it your own.
