PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Online Auction: Bidding from July 24, 2025 10 AM - July 31st 2:00 PM CST.

The Harmon County 175 is a special piece of land tucked away in far western Oklahoma, right next to the Texas border. This great spot is extra special because it sits right next to the famous Mill Iron Ranch. The Mill Iron Ranch is a huge piece of land with over 30,000 acres. It has low fences and is very carefully managed to grow big, healthy deer—especially whitetail bucks. People all over the country know about the Mill Iron Ranch because it's one of the best places in Texas to hunt whitetail deer. Every year, hunters find huge bucks there. In fact, one of the most famous bucks ever found there scored an amazing 235 inches!

The Harmon County 175 shares a border with this well-known ranch, which means it benefits from being close to such great deer habitat. The land here is perfect for wildlife, with thick brush, deep draws (which are like small valleys), and plenty of cover for animals to hide and live in. It also has a solar-powered water well, which is super important in this area. Water is the key to attracting and keeping wildlife around, so this is a big bonus for hunters or nature lovers.

If you are looking for a quiet, beautiful place to enjoy nature, hunt big whitetail deer, or just have your own private getaway, the Harmon County 175 could be just what you're looking for. To see it for yourself or to get more information, contact Trey Pearcy with Great Plains Land Company at \(405\) 545-0985. Don't miss out on this hidden gem!
