PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The Custer County 80 is a remarkable and highly productive property with incredible access! This 80-acre property is located just north of Arapaho, Oklahoma, right off State Highway 183, offering easy access to major roads and surrounding areas. Whether you're looking to farm, ranch, or just enjoy the beauty of the land, this property has everything you need.

This property consists of 75.45 acres of previously tilled farm ground that has been converted into a mix of bluestem and native grasses, making it perfect for grazing livestock or wildlife. The remaining acreage includes 3.5 acres of State Highway 183 running through the property, providing great visibility and easy access. There's also 1.05 acres of timber, offering a natural space for wildlife and adding beauty to the landscape.

The land is made up of a variety of soil types, each with its own strengths for farming and grazing. The property includes:

- 40.65 acres of Carey and Woodward soils with 3 to 5 percent slopes, great for farming and grazing.
- 11.84 acres of Woodward silt loam with 5 to 8 percent slopes, offering productive soil for growing crops.
- 10.55 acres of Woodward-Quinlan complex with 3 to 5 percent slopes, ideal for grazing or farming.
- 4.99 acres of Carey silt loam with 1 to 3 percent slopes, perfect for low-maintenance crops or grazing.

With this mixture of soils, the Custer County 80 is well-suited for a variety of agricultural uses, from grazing livestock to growing crops. The property's location also offers easy access to the nearby town of Arapaho and other surrounding areas, making it a great investment opportunity.

Whether you want to start a new farming operation, expand an existing one, or simply enjoy the rural beauty of Oklahoma, the Custer County 80 offers the perfect place to do so. Don't miss the opportunity to own this incredible piece of land!
