PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

178.359 acres for sale in one of the most beautiful valleys in Ross County, Ohio. The current owners acquired this property, which was once a dairy farm, from their family in 1997. They spent years clearing the land, constructing a 1-acre pond, and building an equipment garage. They appreciated the location, privacy, and beauty of the property so much that they decided to build their new home in 2004. They contacted one of the top contractors in the area and worked side by side with them to construct the perfect family home. This all-brick home consists of over 5000 square feet of living area, and features 3 large bedrooms, 5 1/2 baths, a full finished basement, and a large bonus room above the garage. Custom features include hardwood floors, custom windows that provide great views from every room, custom cabinets, a custom staircase, natural stone floors in the garage and basement, 3 fireplaces, and a covered outdoor living area with an outdoor kitchen with appliances and a fireplace.

The property consists of big woods, a hidden meadow, a one-acre stocked pond, and approximately a mile of frontage on Salt Lick Creek —plenty of trails for hiking or riding with family and friends. The 52x32 garage has plenty of room to store all of your toys, along with a 16x30 building to store your equipment. Substantial current and future timber value. Timber report available upon request.

Located just 20 minutes from Adena Regional Medical Center, 16 minutes from Jackson, just over an hour from Columbus, and just under 2 hours from Cincinnati.

For years, this has been the perfect place for family reunions, memorials, all holiday get-togethers, a wedding, class reunions, and church events, and is ready for the next family to make unforgettable memories.
