General Description:

Just 2.5 miles from downtown Tarboro the Red Iron Bridge Tract boasts everything you could want in a recreational tract with extensive river frontage along the Tar River. With multiple gated accesses along East Baker Street and Daniel Street the accessibility to this property is unmatched. The property consists of everything from pine stands to hardwood and cypress bottoms as well as swamp. This combination creates a great diverse habitat that boasts excellent turkey, duck, and deer hunting opportunities as well as some great fishing along the banks of the Tar River. The tract already has multiple box stands and shooting lanes in place and is ready as a turnkey recreational hunting property close to Tarboro and only a little over an hour from Raleigh.
