28 acres for sale in Vinton County just off Perry Ridge Rd. The property is mostly wooded with some mature timber, along with a nice open area that would make a great spot to build a home or cabin. A soil test has already been completed for septic if you decide to build. The land features rolling terrain with a ravine along the south side and the rear west portion of the property. There is good deer and turkey sign throughout, making it a strong option for hunting, as well as a great choice for a weekend getaway or recreational use.
