PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Private Wooded Tract with Creek with Trails and Direct Game Land Access!

Looking for a versatile, recreation-ready homesite with timber, water, and unmatched public-land access? This +/- 32.68-acre tract offers an outstanding combination of features rarely found this close to Durham.

Located in the desirable Bahama community of northeast Durham County, Lot 3 features approximately 80 feet of road frontage and multiple excellent homesite locations. The property includes roughly 19-acres of planted loblolly pines, a beautiful small creek flowing through attractive hardwood bottoms, and an extensive 0.8-mile internal trail system already in place - ready for walking, riding, or exploring from day one.

The Rare Advantage

Lot 3 enjoys direct access to the Butner-Falls of Neuse Game Land, part of the expansive 37,480-acre North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission complex spanning Durham, Granville, and Wake Counties. Step off your property onto public land and continue to the Flat River for fishing, paddling, hiking, wildlife viewing, camping, and seasonal hunting. This level of private-to-public land and river access is extremely hard to find in this part of Durham County.
