PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Current River Waterfront lot in Paradise Acres, Ripley County, MO Welcome to your front-row seat on the crystalline waters of the Current River. Located in the quiet enclave of Paradise Acres in Ripley County, this is one of the last remaining undeveloped waterfront lots in the entire subdivision. Positioned just above the Arkansas state line and near the local landmark known as "Snaggy Bend," this property offers the perfect balance of water views, access and the serene, uncrowded atmosphere of the lower river. Unlike more remote tracts, the heavy lifting here is already addressed-water and electricity are available, allowing you to transition from your architectural vision to reality with ease. Whether you're planning a modern river retreat or a classic family cabin, the level terrain and established surroundings provide a foundation for your investment. Paradise Acres is known for its small-scale, neighborly feel and its commitment to the river lifestyle. Owners here enjoy private access to a community boat launch, making it effortless to get on the water for a day of smallmouth fishing or a slow sunset cruise. This portion of the river is cherished by locals for its pace-quiet enough to hear the water over the stones, yet big enough to feel the true power of the Current. Located just south of Doniphan, you are close enough for a quick run into town for supplies, yet far enough downstream to feel completely removed from the hustle. As one of the final opportunities to build in this sought-after development, this lot represents a rare "buy and hold" or "buy and build" scenario in one of the most stable recreational markets in the Ozarks.
